

LawSafe

Faulty Concrete

A householder got into dispute with a builders' supplies merchant when he declined to pay an account for sub-standard concrete supplied for a house renovation. The materials were found not to be "up to spec" and had to be ripped out and replaced. LawSafe provided legal assistance in coming to a satisfactory settlement with the supplier.

