

LawSafe

Careless Driving Causing Death

A truck driver was under threat of being charged with careless driving causing death after a collision in which the two occupants of a third party vehicle were killed.

With the intervention of a LawSafe "panel lawyer" it was determined that the causes of the collision were road and weather conditions and charges were not pursued. The legal costs were substantial.