

The Insured must read this Policy as a complete document and refer to all of its contents and not just to individual parts. The Insured should return the Policy to the Insurers immediately for alteration if they believe it is incorrect. The Insured should seek clarification of anything which they do not understand.

If the Insured or any representative of the Insured conceals, misrepresents or fails to disclose any fact or circumstance which affects this Policy or its formation, the Policy will be voidable from inception.

If the Insured or any representative of the Insured commits fraud or attempts to do so in connection with any claim under this Policy, the Policy is void.

Assignment

The Insured's interest under this Policy cannot be assigned without the prior permission of the Insurers.

Subrogation

The Insurers shall have the right to request that the Insured's rights be assigned to them, such request not to be unreasonably withheld.
