 - (ii) either durability or protection from external water or moisture entering that building or structure, or the effects thereof.
- m. any actual or alleged liability whatsoever for any claim or claims in respect of loss or losses directly or indirectly arising out of, resulting from or in consequence of, asbestos in whatever form or quantity.
2. The Company shall not be liable under this Policy to make payment for any loss in connection with any claims:
- a.
 - i. made or threatened or in any way intimated on or before the inception date of the Policy specified in the Schedule.
 - ii. arising from any circumstance or circumstances of which the Insured shall become aware prior to the Policy inception and which a reasonable person in the position of the Insured would at any time prior to the inception of the Policy have considered may give rise to a claim or claims under this Policy.
 - iii. First notified to the Company after the expiry of the Policy.
 - b. brought against the Insured in a court of law outside New Zealand.
 - c. brought about or contributed to by any dishonest, fraudulent, criminal or malicious act or omission of the Insured.
3. It is agreed that any fact pertaining to any Insured shall not be imputed to any other Insured for the purpose of determining the application of these Exclusions.

general conditions

1. The Insured shall not admit liability for or settle any claim or incur any costs or expense in connection therewith without the written consent of the Company which shall be entitled at any time to take over and conduct in the name of the Insured (which shall be a condition precedent to the Insured's right to be covered under this Policy) the defence or settlement of any claim.

However, if the Insured shall refuse to consent to any settlement recommended by the Company and shall elect to contest or continue any legal proceedings in connection therewith, the Company's liability for the claims shall not exceed the amount for which the claim could have been so settled plus the costs and expenses incurred up to the date of such refusal.

2. The Insured shall use due diligence and do and concur in doing all things reasonable practicable to avoid or diminish any loss hereunder, and shall give all such information and assistance to the Company as it may reasonably require to enable it to investigate and to defend the claim and/or to enable the Company to determine its liability under this Policy.

The Company may, on the receipt by it of notice from the Insured of any request for indemnity under this Policy, take whatever action that it considers appropriate to protect the Insured's position in respect of the claim against the Insured and such action by the Company shall not be regarded as in any way prejudicing its position under the Policy and no admission of the Insured's entitlement to indemnity under the Policy shall be implied.

If the Company instructs any lawyer to investigate or defend any claim against the Insured, the Insured authorises the lawyer to provide to the Company any documents, information or advice in respect of the claim, including in relation to indemnity; and the Insured waives any privilege to the extent necessary to give full effect to the Company's entitlement in this respect.

3. The inclusion in this Policy of more than one Insured shall not operate to increase the Limit of Indemnity specified in the Schedule.
4. In respect of each and every claim against the Insured the amount of the Excess specified in the Schedule shall be borne by the Insured at their own risk and is uninsured. The Company shall only be liable to indemnify the Insured for the amount beyond the level of the Excess. The Excess applies also to the costs and expenses relating to the claim.

For the purpose of this condition the term 'claim' shall be understood to mean any and all claims which are within the scope of this Policy and which arise by reason of the same Wrongful Act.

5. If the Insured shall make any application for indemnity under this Policy, knowing that such application for indemnity is false or fraudulent, this Policy shall become void and the Insured's right to indemnify hereunder shall be forfeited in respect of any past, present or future claims.
6. It is hereby agreed that if any payment is made under the Policy in respect of a claim, the Company is subrogated to all the Insured's rights of recovery in relation thereto. The Insured shall give all such assistance in the exercise of rights of recovery as the Company may reasonably require. However, the Company shall not exercise any subrogated rights of recovery against any employee or former employee of the Insured unless the claim has been brought about or contributed to by the dishonest, fraudulent, criminal or malicious act or omission of the employee or former employee.
7. If at the time a claim arises under this Policy the Insured is or would but for the existence of this Policy be entitled to indemnity under any other policy or policies, the Company shall not be liable except in respect of any excess beyond the amount which would have been payable under such other policy or policies had this Policy not been effected.

8. Cancellation
- a. The Insured may cancel the policy on account of all the Insureds by giving notice in writing to the Company stating when the cancellation shall be effective.

After cancellation by the named Insured, a percentage refund of premium for the current Period of Insurance will be allowed on the following basis:

When cancellation is effective:	Return Premium
i within 60 days of inception of this Policy or renewal thereof	50% of annual premium
ii between 61 and 120 days from inception or renewal	30% of annual premium
iii between 121 and 180 days from inception or renewal	15% of annual premium
iv after 180 days of inception or renewal	No return premium

- b. The Company may cancel the Policy by registered letter sent to the Insured's last known address, or by facsimile transmission (fax) giving not less than 30 days notice of their intention to cancel this Policy, such notice to run from 4pm of the day following that upon which the registered letter is posted. After cancellation by the Company, a refund premium will be allowed prorate to the unexpired portion of insurance.
- c. When the premium is subject to adjustment, cancellation will not affect the obligation of the Insured to supply to the Company such information as is necessary to permit the premium adjustment to be calculated and to pay the amount of the adjustment applicable up to the date of cancellation.

9. Jurisdiction

This Policy shall be governed by the laws of New Zealand whose courts shall have jurisdiction in any dispute arising hereunder.
