Insuring Clause

In consideration of payment of the premium, in reliance on the proposal, declarations, statements and information (which shall be deemed to be the basis of this Policy) and subject to its terms, conditions, exclusions, warranties and endorsements Vero Liability Insurance Limited ("the Company"), agrees to indemnify:

- (a) each Insured Person against all Loss, for which such Insured Person does not receive an indemnity from the Insured Organisation;
- (b) the Insured Organisation against all Loss, for which the Insured Organisation indemnifies any Insured Person as permitted or required by law, and which such Insured Person became legally obliged to pay on account of any claim(s) made against him/her individually or otherwise, during the Period of Insurance and reported to the Company, in accordance with the Reporting and Notice section, during the same period or, if exercised, the Extended Reporting Period, for a Wrongful Act allegedly committed by such Insured Person at any time.

Limit of Indemnity and Excess

1. For the purpose of this Policy, all Loss arising out of all interrelated Wrongful Acts of any Insured Person(s) will be treated as one claim, and such claim, will be treated as reported to the Company in the Period of Insurance in which the relevant notice is given as required by the Reporting and Notice section.
2. The limit of the Company's liability during the Period of Insurance under this Policy is the Limit of Indemnity in the Schedule.
3. The Company's liability in respect of each and every claim is for Loss to the Insured Person exceeding the Excess in the Schedule.

Automatic Extensions

1. Advancement of Defence Costs

The Company will advance on behalf of the Insured Person(s) or the Insured Organisation, Defence Costs that the Insured Person(s) or the Insured Organisation have incurred in connection with claims made against the Insured Person in relation to Wrongful Acts, prior to disposition of such claims. Provided that to the extent it is finally established by judgment, settlement or other final adjudication that any such Defence Costs are not covered under this Policy the Insured Person(s) or the Insured Organisation, severally according to their interests, agree to repay the Company such Defence Costs.

2. Apportionment

If the allegations against an Insured Person, or an investigation or inquiry:

- (a) include both insured and uninsured allegations, and/or
- (b) are also directed at uninsured parties (including the Insured Organisation itself);

then the Company shall:

- (i) pay only those Defence Costs which are solely attributable to the Insured Person's defence of the insured allegations;
- (ii) not be liable to pay any of the costs or expenses solely attributable to the Insured Person's defence of uninsured allegations and/or to the defence of insured and uninsured parties;
- (iii) pay 70% of those costs which are attributable to the Insured Person's defence of both insured and uninsured allegations and/or to the defence of insured and uninsured parties.

In respect of any particular claim the Insured Person and the Insured Organisation and the Company may agree on an apportionment of costs and expenses in a manner that fairly reflects the allocations in (i) to (iii) above. But, in the absence of such agreement, the separate allocations in (i) to (iii) above shall apply.

The Company shall, subject to Automatic Extension 1 - Advancement of Defence Costs, pay the Defence Costs, and its allocated share of the common costs or expenses as and when they are incurred.

3. Compensation for Court Attendance

If an Insured Person is required to attend court as a witness in connection with a claim under this Policy, the Company will pay that Insured Person $300 for each day or part day on which attendance is required. The cover provided under this extension shall be subject to a sub-limit of $10,000 in the aggregate and shall be part of and not in addition to the Limit of Indemnity on the Schedule.

4. Consolidation or Merger

If the Insured Organisation acquires by merger, or consolidates with, or is merged into or acquired by any other organisation after the commencement of the Period of Insurance, immediate written notice will be given to the Company together with any underwriting information the Company may require and payment will be made of any additional premium required.

5. Continuous Cover

- (a) the failure to notify was innocent;
- (b) the previous insurance, under which the claim, fact, matter or circumstance could or should have been notified was issued by the Company;
- (c) cover under this extension will be subject to the terms of this insurance or to the terms of the previous insurance, whichever the Company at its sole discretion decides; and
- (d) the amount payable under this extension will be reduced by the amount that fairly represents the extent to which the Company's interests were prejudiced by the failure to notify.

6. Employment Practices Liability Cover for Insured Persons

The Company shall indemnify any Insured Person for Loss arising from an Employment Related Wrongful Act.

7. Employment Superannuation Scheme Trustee Liability

The Company will pay on behalf of any person any claim by reason of any Wrongful Act resulting in Loss arising out of their individual or collective capacities as trustees of the Insured Organisation's own superannuation or pension funds. 8. Estates & Legal Representatives

This Policy extends to claims for Wrongful Acts of any Insured Person made against the estates, heirs, legal representatives or assigns of any Insured Person who is incompetent, insolvent or bankrupt.

9. Extended Reporting Period

If the Company terminates this Policy or refuses to issue a new policy on its termination, the Insured Person(s) and/or the Insured Organisation have the right, upon payment of an additional premium of 50% of the current annual premium, to elect an extension of this insurance for a further period of 12 months immediately following the effective date of such termination, but only with respect to any Wrongful Act allegedly committed prior to the effective date of such termination. This right of extension lapses unless written notice of such election is given to the Company prior to or within 30 days following the effective date of termination of this Policy.

If the Insured Person(s) and/or the Insured Organisation terminates this Policy or declines to accept a new Policy, the Company may at its sole option, grant a similar Extended Reporting Period. The Company's liability under the Extended Reporting Period for Loss is specifically in excess of, and reduced by the amount of any payments on account of the Loss received by the Insured Person(s) and/or the Insured Organisation under any other insurance.

10. Goods & Services Tax

Where an Insured Person or the Insured Organisation is liable to pay tax under the Goods and Services Tax Act 1985 (or any statutory amendment or re-enactment of the Act) on receiving any payment under this Policy, the Company will cover the Insured Person or the Insured Organisation for the cost of that tax. The amount payable under this extension is payable by the Company in addition to the stated Limit of Indemnity.

12. Innocent Non-Disclosure

The Company waives its right to avoid the Policy for material non-disclosure or misrepresentation, provided always that:

- (a) the Company has continuously been the insurer of the Insured Person under a Directors and Officers Insurance Policy between the date when such disclosure or representation should have been given and the date when it was, in fact, given; and
- (b) the Directors or Officers establish to the satisfaction of the Company that such non-disclosure or misrepresentation was innocent and free from any dishonesty or intent to deceive; and
- (c) cover under this extension will be subject to the terms of this Policy or the terms of the previous insurance, whichever the Company at its sole discretion decides; and
- (d) the premium and terms of the current Policy shall be adjusted at the discretion of the Company to those which would have applied had such disclosure or representation been made at the correct time; and
- (e) the Company's liability to indemnify will be no greater than the indemnity for which the Company would have been liable had the proper disclosure or representation been made at the correct time.

13. Insured Versus Insured

Notwithstanding Exclusion (j) and Extension 6, the Policy is extended to include claims made against an Insured Person by another Insured Person but only where the claim is:

- (a) a derivative action brought or maintained on behalf of the Insured Organisation without solicitation, assistance or active participation by the Insured Organisation or any Insured Person; or

- (a) within 14 days of acquisition written notice is given to the Company together with any underwriting information the Company may require and payment is made of any additional premium required; and

Provided that the maximum aggregate amount payable under this extension shall be $250,000, which is part of and not in addition to the Limit of Indemnity stated in the Schedule.

16. Outside Position Liability

If an Insured Person holds any Outside Position solely for the purpose of representing the Insured Organisation, this Policy provides indemnity for claims resulting from the Outside Position, as if the Wrongful Act was in the course of his/her duties to the Insured Organisation, provided that:

- (a) this indemnity is restricted to such Insured Person;
- (b) this indemnity is in excess of any other indemnity or insurance available and is only provided to such Insured Person by reason of serving in such Outside Position;
- (c) this indemnity only applies if such Outside Position is in existence at the commencement of the Period of Insurance. However, this cover will extend to new Outside Positions undertaken during the Period of Insurance, subject to written notice within 14 days of appointment to the Company and provision of any underwriting information required as well as payment of any additional premium required. For former Outside Positions, there will be indemnity only if previously notified and agreed to by the Company in writing.
- (d) this indemnity does not apply to any Outside Position in any company or entity incorporated or resident in USA or Canada or their protectorates.

17. Pollution Defence Costs

The Company agrees to pay Defence Costs incurred in connection with any claim alleging any Wrongful Act resulting in seepage, pollution, contamination or breach of any law prohibiting or controlling emissions or effluents of any kind, or from any enforcement action or proceeding brought under or pursuant to any law.

Provided that the Company's liability for these Defence Costs will not exceed $250,000 in the aggregate for the Period of Insurance, the amount being part of, and not additional to, the Limit of Indemnity.

18. Preservation of Indemnity

If any Insured Person is unable to obtain the full benefit of a right to indemnity against the Insured Organisation to which he or she is entitled, by reason only of the Insured Organisation being placed in liquidation (other than voluntary liquidation) and having insufficient funds available so as to indemnify the Insured Person, then it is hereby agreed that the Company shall indemnify the Insured Person against Loss arising from any claim.

The Excess applicable to Insuring Clause (a) shall apply. The burden of adducing satisfactory proof to obtain the benefit of this Extension shall rest entirely with the Insured Person and shall include the production of documentary evidence of the Insured Organisation's assets and liabilities and any official statements issued by the liquidator, receiver, statutory manager or compromise manager.

19. Previous Subsidiaries of the Insured Organisation

The definition of Insured Organisation includes any entity that ceased to be a Subsidiary before or during the Period of Insurance, but the Company will not pay for Loss arising from Wrongful Acts occurring after it ceased to be a Subsidiary, nor will the Company pay for Loss arising from Wrongful Acts occurring before it became a Subsidiary.

With respect to Exclusions 1(a) – 1(q) of the Policy, no fact pertaining to, nor knowledge possessed by, or any Wrongful Act committed by any Insured Person(s) will be imputed to any other Insured Person(s) for the purpose of determining the availability of coverage for or with respect to claims made against any Insured Person(s).

- (b) ownership or interest in property which the claimant seeks as recovery for alleged Wrongful Acts of the Insured Person, all loss which such spouse becomes legally obligated to pay by reason of such claim will be treated for purposes of this Policy as Loss which the Insured Person becomes legally obligated to pay on account of the claim made against the Insured Person. Provided that:

- (a) no Defence Costs other than those incurred with the prior written consent of the Company shall be payable under this Extension; and
- (b) the Company shall not be under any obligation to advance Defence Costs as they are incurred, but may advance Defence Costs at its sole and absolute discretion; and
- (c) the Insured Person(s), according to their respective interests, shall repay any payments advanced by the Company back to the Company in the event that they are not entitled to such payment under this Policy; and
